John Ness Beck

With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before God with burnt offerings? Shall I come before God with yearling calves? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my first-born for my transgressions, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? God has shown you, O child. God has shown you what is good. And what does the Lord require of you but to do justice and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

Stained Glass Piece Feature

The stained glass window used during the Children's Message is a memorial for Vicki Yoder. Our congregation's United Methodist Women group commissioned a member of Faith Church, Michele Hubble, to make this beautiful window honoring Vicki, whose life was given to mission and United Methodist Women. You can take a closer look at it when you come into the Gathering area. It is hung on the glass doors as you come from the parking lot. Notice the intricate detail, including today's scripture inscribed on base of the stained glass as well as Vicki's UMW Special Mission Recognition Pin that has been integrated into the artwork.
