O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

J.S. Bach

O sacred Head, now wounded, with grief and shame weighed down, now scornfully surrounded with thorns, thine only crow: how pale thou art with anguish, with sore abuse and scorn! How does that visage languish which one was bright as morn!

Julie Sarver, flute; Heather Cooper, organ

PRELUDE

TITLE

*CALL TO WORSHIP

from 1 Corinthians 15

Leader: On this day of all days we lift our ancient and everlasting praise to God:

In accordance with the scriptures, Christ died for our sins, he was buried, he was raised on the third day. For since death came through a human being, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a human being; for as all die in Adam, so all will be made alive in Christ. The last enemy to be destroyed is death. When this perishable body puts on imperishability, and this mortal body puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will be fulfilled:

"Death has been swallowed up in victory."

"Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?"

But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ

Praise His Holy Name!

Keith Hampton

Sing till the power of the Lord come down. Shout Hallelujah! Praise His Holy name! Amazing grace, how sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me; I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind, but now I see. Jesus, Jesus, how I love Thee! Shout Hallelujah! Praise his Holy name! Must Jesus bear the cross alone and all the world go free? No, there's a cross for ev'ryone and there's a cross for me. Hallelujah! Praise His Name! Let us Praise His Name!

SILENT PRAYER, PASTORAL PRAYER, AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Wir essen und wir leben

from Christ Lag in Todesbanden (B.W.V. 4)

Now we are nourished bounteously with Paschal bread of gladness. The ancient leaven shall not be in this pure word of goodness. Christ himself will feed us well; He only shall feed our soul, for faith can live by no other. Hallelujah!

Easter from Five Mystical Songs

R. Vaughan Williams

Rise heart; thy Lord is risen. Sing his praise without delays. Who takes thee by the hand, that thou likewise with him may'st rise; That, as his death calcined thee to dust, His life may make thee gold, and much more, just. Awake, my lute, and struggle for thy part with all thy art. The cross taught all wood to resound his name who bore the same. His stretched sinews taught all strings, what key is best to celebrate this most high day. Consort both heart and lute, and twist a song, pleasant and long: or since all music is but three parts vied, and multiplied; O let thy blessed Spirit bear a part, And make up our defects with his sweet art.

Greg Eisenbrei, baritone

Ave verum corpus

W.A. Mozart

Hail the true body, born of the Virgin Mary: You who truly suffered and were sacrificed on the cross for the sake of man. From whose pierced flank flowed water and blood: Be a foretaste for us in the trial of death.
