BRINGING IN THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: The saints of old don't wear golden crowns, or sit on lofty perch, mouthing caustic comments on how poorly we yet-mortal souls measure up to the glory of days past.

Many: They, too, knew about keeping hope alive while getting the laundry done, faucets fixed, carpoos covered, and budgets balanced. After the feasts, there's always the dishes.

One: The saints, too, endured wistful nights and wasted days. They had knees that ached in cold weather and sometimes spoke sharp words to dearly-beloveds—including, on occasion, to God.

Many: We, living saints, may never enter a lion's den, or travel through a war zone, or hear a prison door close behind us after an act of conscience. Mostly, we don't get to custom- design the witness we bear, the woe we endure, or the promises we make to mend the world as it crosses our path.

One: By and large, we weigh the choices that come our way without the fanfare of stardom's spotlight, our picture in the paper, or even angels whispering in our ear. Sainly work is more common than we think.

ALL: Jesus, come among all your saints in this hour. Spirit, send your saints into the world

SILENT PRAYER, PASTORAL PRAYER, AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy Kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and glory forever. Amen.
